

MADMAN SET FREE.

Gov. Roosevelt Wants Facts Concerning Broker's Release.

The State Commission in Lunacy has been ordered by Gov. Roosevelt to investigate the release from the State Hospital at Middletown of a man hopelessly insane, without the knowledge or consent of his wife.

He is Louis I. Feigenbaum, a member of the New York Consolidated Exchange. His wife and the $1,000 life insurance which goes with it, are his only assets. For years he has been an active man in Wall street, at first as an employee in the house of I. & S. Wormser, and afterward on his own account. He was long known as a plunger, and when successive losses turned his mind he still believed himself to be immensely wealthy and conducted himself accordingly.

Mrs. Feigenbaum has given up her former elegant home at 1373 Washington avenue, in the Borough of the Bronx, and is living in two little rooms in Avenue D, near Seventh street, where she works hard to support her three children. She has been assisted by the Empire City Lodge, No. 206, F. & A. M., of which her husband is a member, and the members of which defrayed the expenses of his incarceration in the asylum.

Mrs. Feigenbaum charges her husband's brother, Abram, and the husband of one of his sisters, with conspiring to get her husband out of the asylum in order to get his seat on the Consolidated Exchange. Through counsel she has secured an injunction restraining the Governors of the Exchange from turning over his interests to any relatives.

She is interested Gov. Roosevelt in her letter of complaint that he insisted on having the action of Supt. Talcott, of the Middletown institution, in secretly releasing a dangerous lunatic looked into.

His disease is paranoid and is incurable. He is now in San Francisco living in cheap lodging houses on the charity of Masonic brethren.

JEALOUS WOMAN'S SUICIDE

Mrs. Dacy Killed Herself by Gas After Quarrel with a Friend.

The Greenpoint police say the alleged mystery in the death of Mrs. Mina Dacy, found dead yesterday morning in her bedroom at 116 Leonard street, with a rubber tube in her mouth, the other end of which was attached to a gas radiator, will turn out at the inquest to-day to be nothing more than suicide from jealousy.

Mrs. Dacy, the police say, was a friend of Patrick O'Neill, one of the owners of Clarendon Hall, in this borough, and that he provided the house in Greenpoint where she lived. Jealousy, the police say, on her part, led to a quarrel Monday night, and Mrs. Dacy and O'Neill parted with bitter words.

The next morning, after O'Neill had left the house, a servant found Mrs. Dacy dead in her own apartment. The suicide was reported to Coroner Delap, but he did not give the details to the police until last night.

O'Neill is said to be wealthy and was the first man to set silver dollars in the floor of his saloon, then, eighteen years ago, located in Greenpoint avenue. "Silver Dollar" Smith followed O'Neill's example.

O'Neill refused to talk about Mrs. Dacy's death this morning.

SPANIARD'S NAME DEWEY.

At Least Alcohol Victim Said So—Magistrate Zeller's Answer Was "Five Dollars."

In the line of "drunks" before Magistrate Zeller, in the Centre Street station this morning, was a well but rather shabbily dressed foreigner. Policeman Birmingham, of the Leonard street station, told the Magistrate that he had found the man asleep on a stoop early this morning.

"What is your name?" the Magistrate asked the man.

"No speaks American," replied the man. "Me Espania."

An interpreter put the Magistrate's question.

"George Dewey," was the astonishing reply.

"That settles it," remarked Magistrate Zeller. "Any Spaniard that assumes that name is a rogue. I'll fine you $5."

FINE DRESS GOODS.

Magnificent Display on Exhibition at Arnold, Constable & Co.'s Big Store.

Exclusive patterns, latest styles and beautiful variety marked Arnold, Constable & Co.'s Spring display of dress goods to-day. Parisian importations predominated. Among the most notable novelties were hand-painted panne satins, done in light and ten colors. Polka-dot foulards, made with small satins with white and colored stripes toward the bottom of the skirt. The latest and most unique Parisian products. The array of panne satins was dazzling. Persian combings and pastel shades attracted much attention. Fancy gowns were goods in cotton, tulle and silk with Persian designs on one side and tulle on the other. A display of coloring and designs of dress goods.

The dinner and reception waits and a vast assortment of crepe de chine and lace dress goods were on display. Flower patterns prevailed, and exquisite designs in chrysanthemum, roses and iris rivalled any elsewhere imported.

Some goods in all colors of silk and crepe de chine, together with silk and wool dress goods, were displayed. French crepe de chine and crepe de chine were also on display.

"AMERICAN GIRL" AN APRIL BRIDE.

Miss Fannie Roberta Dunlap, Accepted as the Typical Yankee Damsel, to Marry Rich Englishman To-Night.

FANNIE R. DUNLAP.

Miss Fannie Roberta Dunlap, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunlap, of this city, will become the bride this evening of J. Ormiston Lawson Johnson, a wealthy young Londoner. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. John Wesley Brown, rector of St. Thomas's Protestant Episcopal Church, on Fifth avenue. Society of both this country and England will be well represented, over one hundred invited guests having crossed the ocean to attend the wedding.

Miss Dunlap is to wear a steel gray gown, a gorgeous creation from Paris, said to be the "smartest" wedding dress that has been sent out of the Parisian capital this season. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lawson Johnson, is to be gowned in a magnificent Worth creation made especially for the May drawing-room reception of Queen Victoria, at which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap became known as "The American Girl," having been accepted by Malcolm Arthur Strauss, the American artist, as the typical type of that dashing young person so often pictured in this country and abroad. She is strikingly handsome and in dress is perhaps aptly described as "swagger." In London she was known as one of the best gowned women in society.

Mr. Strauss made her his "heroine model" in a book without words which he published called "Up and Corner." Miss Dunlap figured in the book as the American girl whose hand is sought by a titled Englishman, but he died in time to permit her to marry the choice of her heart, an American.

At which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap is to wear a steel gray gown, a gorgeous creation from Paris, said to be the "smartest" wedding dress that has been sent out of the Parisian capital this season. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lawson Johnson, is to be gowned in a magnificent Worth creation made especially for the May drawing-room reception of Queen Victoria, at which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap became known as "The American Girl," having been accepted by Malcolm Arthur Strauss, the American artist, as the typical type of that dashing young person so often pictured in this country and abroad. She is strikingly handsome and in dress is perhaps aptly described as "swagger." In London she was known as one of the best gowned women in society.

Mr. Strauss made her his "heroine model" in a book without words which he published called "Up and Corner." Miss Dunlap figured in the book as the American girl whose hand is sought by a titled Englishman, but he died in time to permit her to marry the choice of her heart, an American.

At which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap is to wear a steel gray gown, a gorgeous creation from Paris, said to be the "smartest" wedding dress that has been sent out of the Parisian capital this season. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lawson Johnson, is to be gowned in a magnificent Worth creation made especially for the May drawing-room reception of Queen Victoria, at which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap became known as "The American Girl," having been accepted by Malcolm Arthur Strauss, the American artist, as the typical type of that dashing young person so often pictured in this country and abroad. She is strikingly handsome and in dress is perhaps aptly described as "swagger." In London she was known as one of the best gowned women in society.

Mr. Strauss made her his "heroine model" in a book without words which he published called "Up and Corner." Miss Dunlap figured in the book as the American girl whose hand is sought by a titled Englishman, but he died in time to permit her to marry the choice of her heart, an American.

At which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap is to wear a steel gray gown, a gorgeous creation from Paris, said to be the "smartest" wedding dress that has been sent out of the Parisian capital this season. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lawson Johnson, is to be gowned in a magnificent Worth creation made especially for the May drawing-room reception of Queen Victoria, at which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap became known as "The American Girl," having been accepted by Malcolm Arthur Strauss, the American artist, as the typical type of that dashing young person so often pictured in this country and abroad. She is strikingly handsome and in dress is perhaps aptly described as "swagger." In London she was known as one of the best gowned women in society.

Mr. Strauss made her his "heroine model" in a book without words which he published called "Up and Corner." Miss Dunlap figured in the book as the American girl whose hand is sought by a titled Englishman, but he died in time to permit her to marry the choice of her heart, an American.

At which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap is to wear a steel gray gown, a gorgeous creation from Paris, said to be the "smartest" wedding dress that has been sent out of the Parisian capital this season. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lawson Johnson, is to be gowned in a magnificent Worth creation made especially for the May drawing-room reception of Queen Victoria, at which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap became known as "The American Girl," having been accepted by Malcolm Arthur Strauss, the American artist, as the typical type of that dashing young person so often pictured in this country and abroad. She is strikingly handsome and in dress is perhaps aptly described as "swagger." In London she was known as one of the best gowned women in society.

Mr. Strauss made her his "heroine model" in a book without words which he published called "Up and Corner." Miss Dunlap figured in the book as the American girl whose hand is sought by a titled Englishman, but he died in time to permit her to marry the choice of her heart, an American.

At which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

Miss Dunlap is to wear a steel gray gown, a gorgeous creation from Paris, said to be the "smartest" wedding dress that has been sent out of the Parisian capital this season. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lawson Johnson, is to be gowned in a magnificent Worth creation made especially for the May drawing-room reception of Queen Victoria, at which the bride of this evening is to be presented.

ACTOR WANTS $25,000.

Hemmingway Invaded Emmett Corrigan's Home While Searching for Divorce Evidence.

Emmett Corrigan, leading man of the Ben Hur company, at the Broadway Theatre, has brought suit against E. S. Hemmingway, of Nyack, for $25,000 damages.

This action is the outcome of the forcible entry of the Corrigan home by Hemmingway, a lawyer and two detectives on April 19. Mr. Hemmingway was looking for divorce evidence against his wife, who left him, and by some means the sleuths confounded her with Mrs. Corrigan.

The party invaded the Corrigan bedroom, and it was after long argument that they were persuaded that Mrs. Corrigan was not the woman sought for.

B. Altman & Co.

WRAPS and COATS.—PARIS MODELS AND COPIES. LONG GARMENTS, TAILOR MADE and FANCY COATS.

GOLF and TOURIST CAPES.

ETON COATS of Taffeta Silk, with embroidered Batis'e Collar, formerly $38.00, at $25.00

TOP COATS of Cheviot or Covert cloth, 10.00

LADIES' BOOTS and TIES.—NEW MODELS; PATENT LEATHER, GLACE KID, TAN RUSSIAN CALF AND TAN KID.

MISSIES' and CH LDREN'S BOOTS in large assortment.

Ladies' Glace Kid Oxford Ties, $1.90

Ladies' Glace Kid Button Boots, with Kid tips, 2.45

Ladies' Patent Leather Button Boots with dull Kid tops, 3.15

Special Sale of Jackets & Capes

Jackets in Black Cheviot, fly front, taffeta lined; also, double-breasted Eton Coats—taffeta lined and silk faced. These jackets are made and finished in the most perfect manner. All sizes, 32 to 42. Value $15.00, at $10.50.

Eton Coats.

Of Black Broadcloth; in two models, one with notched Collar, silk faced, black or tan. The other in Collarless Eton, with folds of Satin. Value $18.50, at $15.00.

Lord & Taylor.

Broadway & 20th St.

Steamer and Golf Capes of our own manufacture; exclusive patterns. Capes of choice Double-faced Plaids; black and white and colored materials. Value, $10.50, at $8.50.

Capes of Imported Rugs, in Black and White; also, Fancy Plaid materials, extra lengths. Value, $17.50, at $12.75.

Also an excellent variety of Steamer and Traveling Ulsters in Covert and Double-faced materials, in the new Raglan or semi-fitted backs.

Lord & Taylor.

Broadway & 20th St.

Daniell's.

Exceptional values in our Upholstery Department FOR THURSDAY.

It will repay you to see our line before purchasing elsewhere.

25 pieces Embroidered Sash Muslins, 30 inches wide, our 15c. quality, Thursday, per yard 10c.

150 pair Ruffled Muslin Curtains, 3 yards long, regular price 85c. and $1.10

pair, Thursday 65c and 89c

An odd lot of Irish Point and Nottingham Lace Curtains, from 1 to 3 pair of a kind, closing out at from 1/4 to 1/2 off regular prices.

ART SQUARES.

All wool Ingrain Art Squares at special prices.

Were. Now

2 x 3 yards....$4.50..$2.98

2 1/2 x 3 " .... 5.50.. 3.98

2 1/2 x 3 1/2 " .... 6.50.. 4.75

3 x 3 1/2 " .... 7.75.. 5.50

3 x 4 " .... 8.50.. 5.98

A splendid assortment of finest quality

JAPANESE RUGS

at record breaking prices.

Size. Reg. Price. Now.

6 x 9 ft....$5.75....$4.25

7 1/2 x 10 " .... 8.75.... 6.50

9 x 12 " .... 11.50.... 8.75

Smaller sizes in proportion.

150 Bagdad Striped Couch Covers, fringed all round, reversible, regular price $3.50 each, Thursday.....$2.49

Estimates furnished on Shades and Slip Covers.

Broadway, Eighth and Ninth Sts.

Present: SHOWERS.

Pay us $15 for a Rain Coat—a Mackintosh, and with it goes a combination—style, service, comfort. Nothing less can buy so much.

Pay us $10 and $7.50 for Keep-Dry Coats—that's about all we claim they are.

If you want a luxury, buy a Cravenette for $25.

Hackett, Carhart & Co.

Three BROADWAY Stores.

Cor. 13th St. Cor. Canal St. Near Chambers.

ESTABLISHED 1846.

NEW YORK STORE: BROADWAY, COR. 21ST ST.

BROOKLYN STORE: Broadway & Bedford Ave. Fulton St. & Flatbush Ave.

Many novel Suits for Little Gentlemen (sizes 3 to 8) are here in many new designs.

Some are embroidered and braided; some are perfectly plain; some with fancy silk collars; some with figured vests—all are pretty—$4 to $8.

The broad, square shoulder is a feature of our Suits and Top Coats, $14 to $35.

Great Sale of Oil Paintings and Fancy Pictures.

Beautiful Paintings in oil colors, great variety, with 24 inch gilt frames: regular $1.50, till Saturday, each.....98

Medallions, great assortment pretty subjects: value $2.25 till Saturday, each.....16

Dining Room Pictures, 14x22, very pretty subjects, embossed, 5-inch gold oak frames: value $1.75 till Saturday, each.....98

Also Oil Paintings by Deval, Munster, Roeder and others of note.

WORLD WANTS

Buttontails the Public and hold their attention for a little while—just long enough to sell the purpose of the advertisement. They get help for the help-hunters and they get jobs for the situation seekers.

19th St. Sixth Avenue 20th St.

McClain, Simpson & Co.

HOUSE FURNISHERS, 539-541 Eighth Ave., N. W. Cor. 37th St.

CASH OR CREDIT.

Space will not permit of our enumerating all the good things we have to offer you this Spring. Whatever additions you wish to make to your household supplies you will find here. All we ask of you is—pay a little when you select your goods and something each week, and we do the rest.

Very Pretty Baby Carriage, varnished red body, upholstered in silk figured tapestry, silk perambulator, rubber-tired wheels, patent anti-friction foot brake; worth up to $7.00, while they last, 19.50 for this golden oak or mahogany finished Rocker, high spindle back and arms; usual price is $3.50.

89c for this golden oak high-back, cane seat, Dining Chair, fancy carved top and strongly made; usually sold for $1.20.

8th Ave. Cars Pass Our Door. All Cars Transfer to Our Corner.

Vantine's

ORIENTALISTS AND JEWELERS
BROADWAY & 18TH ST.

The new Oriental Apartment on the 5th floor suggests many effective "treatments" for the country home. Vantine's artist decorator will submit designs and estimates whenever desired.

Fourth Floor.

Vantine's China & Japan Mattings.

Direct Importations from our own warehouses in Japan and China. New patterns and color combinations.

Note particularly:

The Vantine Cotton Warp Japan Matting at $8.25 Per Roll of 40 yards

And the Strongly Woven Chinese Matting at $7.75 Per Roll of 40 yards.

Others in Japanese Matting: At $9.25, $10, $12, $13.75, $16.50, $18 and $20 a roll of 40 yards.

In Chinese Matting: At $8.25, $9.00, $10.50 and $12 per roll of 40 yards.

Wm Vogel & Son

Brisk Big Business

Is what we're having nowadays. Easter week never was so busy as this year. We sold so many Spring Overcoats, that many of our lines are nearly sold out—to clear the few-of-a-kind of $15, $16, $18 and $20

Spring Overcoats,

WE'VE MARKED THEM

$12.50

In the lot are Oxford, Coverts and Blacks—some silk lined—the regular Spring Overcoat, Short Box Coat as well as the new Raglan Styles are represented. All sizes.

Broadway, cor. Houston Street.

SIMPSON, CRAWFORD & SIMPSON

UNTRIMMED HAT DEPARTMENT.

25 dozen straw and chiffon combination Turbans and Walking Hats, in mals, castor, light blue, sage, brown and 98c

Never sold before under $2.75.

100 Straw Turbans, trimmed with chiffon, in black and colors; real value $3.50, at..... 2.45

60 dozen Bluet and Wheat Sprays; real value 60c. 29c each, at.....

50 dozen Cherry Sprays, 3 stems and containing 27 cherries; value 85c. each, at..... 69c

35 dozen Clusters of Grapes with foliage, in assorted natural shades, 3 sprays in each cluster, real value $1.10 75c each, at.....

19th St. Sixth Avenue 20th St.

Ludwig Baumann & Comp'y

Through to West 124th St. 144-146 West 125th St., Bet. Lenox and Seventh Aves.

Every Day Bargain Day. Opportunities—worthy ones, too—that only now and again can be had elsewhere, are here every day in the week. We doubt if there is another concern that sells on a smaller margin of profit than we do. Nor do we know of any firm carrying a better and greater variety of Furniture, Carpets, Rugs and House Furnishings.

ACCOUNTS OPENED.

Well-known Parisian Refrigerators, best there is, in quartered oak, carvings, lever lock, mineral wool insulation, metal crimped lining, perfect air circulation, drip cover, latest improved; holds 30 pounds of ice, weighs 10 pounds; height 30 inches, length 20 inches; value $10.00; special till Saturday only..... 6.75

These fine 6-foot Extension Tables, solid, rich golden oak, with well finished top, 42x60, a massive turned and fluted legs, 42 in.; regular value $20.00; special till Saturday only..... 6.75

To introduce our clock department, we place on sale till Saturday large number of clocks, including elegant Knight Clocks, standing 17 inches high, 20 inches wide, with 6 inch Empire Sash and levered Porcelain dial, 8-day, half hour strike, cathedral gong, visible escapement, exactly like cut, with heroic bronze or gilt assorted figures and finish; you must see this bargain to appreciate its value 9.25 $17.50 special price

New Haven Alarm Clocks, till Saturday..... 57

I have been sent here to fix your bell, he told the Princess, and she, thinking her husband had sent for him, gave orders that he be allowed to work about the house. Soon after the Princess engaged in fancy work for the Cuban Fair, where she has a booth. A young man carrying a bag of tools was admitted.

After an hour he told the butler he would have to get some more wire.

When the Princess returned later she missed a morocco jewel case left in her room.

In this case was a diamond solitaire, a ring with three small diamonds, a ring with four rubies set with diamonds, a turquoise ring and a gold heart. The police say they are valued at $100.

It is said that the young man had negligently overlooked another jewel case, containing gems worth nearly $1,000. The police were not informed until 10 o'clock last night.

The police are making a thorough search for the smooth young "electrician" who vanished with the jewel case and jewelry of the Princess Auersperg, worth $1,000.

The Princess has furnished a very good description of him.